Overview

An interactive story about Alex (they/them), who lives in a world overrun by robots, and not the cool Iron Man kind. In short, the bots take your jobs.

Alex, a cafe worker, struggles grapples with life after college. Family, societal, and personal pressures all come to a head as they try to keep their role.

The Process

Ideation

- Initially completely Choose Your Own Adventure
- Focus on mental health
- Considered more closely relating the story to the university setting or identity
- Scrollytelling(?)

The Design

→ Accessibility

→ Using an off-white background to better clarity

→ Vector Illustrations for responsiveness

→ Wanted illustrations to look appealing on both larger and smaller screens

→ Character Design

→ Humans vs Robots

Development

- Choices

- Journaling

 - Viewing, writing, and reviewing your journal

- To Implement: Youtube API

 - Used so as not to require a sign-in from users
